

Winmalee High School recently showcased its 1991 musical production 'Rhythm'. More than 200 students were involved in the show that plotted the dramatic highs and lows of relationships within a musical production.

Cathy Lockley playing Angie and Angus Crossam as Todd, players in a long childhood relationship that was going nowhere fast.

'Rhythm' scriptwriters Cathy Lockley (left) and Amanda Haines (right) with the writer of the school's previous musical FAB, Nicole Beaver.

